September 1994

From the East

Brethren,

September has come and we're back to work. The officers are completely set with a full line of degrees. During the next couple of months we will be working in advanced stations and I am proud to say everybody is ready to go.

In September, the theme for the Stated Meeting will be "The Ugliest Tie Contest," which the winner will receive from me $25.00. So, clean out the closet for that ugly tie!!

I would like to report that we're working within our budget and we should finish our year (if everything goes right) in the black, with some type of carry over of funds to the next year.

Shortly the Lodge will be selling "Lodge Jackets" which will be red in color for those Bulldog Games to come. This will have the square and compass on the back and our Lodge name on the front. They will be nylon and lined for around $20 - $25. Please contact the Secretary's office for yours.

See you in Lodge!
 Tip Banks, Master

From the South

Brethren:

Summer is over and it is time to return to the scheduled activities of our Lodge. As we begin the last few months of this year let us renew our interest and efforts toward the completion of Worshipful Tip's term. The officers will be working in advanced stations. Please check the calendar and plan on attending these important lodge activities.

Thought for the Day: "...if all we did was to concentrate on helping, caring and Brotherly love; if all we did was to live in reality the life our Ritual enjoins us; if all we did was proudly to take care of ourselves and others; Masonic membership would take off like a rocket...." (Scottish Rite Journal, June 1994)

Looking forward to seeing you in YOUR Lodge and mine...

Cline "Cub" Jack, Junior Warden

PROCLAMATION

CONSTITUTION OBSERVANCE MONTH

When we study the history of our great Fraternity, we are continuously impressed with the prerequisite of liberty. And once the role of liberty is fully understood, the true meaning of the free in Freemasonry becomes apparent and, then, the importance of our annual Constitution Observance program is made abundantly clear. For without a free society there would be no Freemasonry.

The goal of this annual Masonic program is simple. Every lodge or district develops its own program. One which will encourage membership and community support for the protection, securing, and understanding of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The freedom we now enjoy was not easily won nor will it be so easy to retain. Freedom demands the very best we have to give. Duty and responsibility must be constantly exercised by each and every citizen or apathy will surely separate us from our precious freedom. Have we really delivered this message throughout our jurisdiction? Can we rest until we have done so?

I, therefore, proclaim the month of September, 1994 to be:

U.S. CONSTITUTION OBSERVANCE MONTH

and direct every lodge in California to hold public ceremonies during this month, commemorating the signing of the U.S. Constitution on September 17, 1787.

Also, I direct that this Proclamation be read at the August and September Stated Meetings of each lodge and, when convenient, that it be published in the lodge bulletin.
