October 1994

From the East

Brethren,

Grand Lodge is upon us and that reminds everybody that our year is winding down. All the officers are working in their advanced stations and if you have attended the Special Meetings you would agree with me that they are fantastic!

With the new additions to the line next year, Worshipful Yelkin (next year) will have a great corps of officers. I would like to thank Mary Perch and her help for making the Grand Master's Dinner very beautiful success. Your work doesn't go unnoticed Mary! Also I would like to thank all the ladies for preparing all the wonderful appetizers everyone enjoyed. A special thanks goes to all the Masonic youth, Job's, Rainbow and DeMolay for helping with the event.

Our Calendar for next month will be rather "off the Cuff." We will be having a lot of Second and Third degrees, but everyone works at a different rate and as they became ready we will present the degrees. Please be with us.

See you in Lodge!
Tip Banks, Master

From the South

Brethren:

September has come and gone, and what a busy month it was! We started out with one of each degree; 1st on 9/1, 2nd on 9/8 and 3rd on 9/29 with all officers doing a fine job in advanced stations. Stated meeting/dinner on 9/15. A dinner and reception for the Grand Master of Masons and officers was held at our lodge on 9/22.

On 9/9, P.M. Randy Forrester, Wally Scott, and I traveled to Oakland for a presentation by the Masonic Renewal Committee, with Dudley Davis as the speaker. He offered much food for thought... the status of Masonry today and where it is headed in the future, and also what we need to do to make that future "BRIGHT." This committee has written a "Blueprint 2000" which states in part; "In the decade ahead, the fate of organizations like Freemasonry... will be member driven. Time and quality will be our members' prerequisites. The ordinary will not cut it. Lodges that understand that they have an obligations to meet their members needs with quality as defined by the member will survive. The Blueprint for Masonry is well defined. The willing hands of Masons to build upon it is well known. The vision is clear. Together, we can make it happen."

Looking forward to seeing you in your Lodge and Mine!

Cline "Cub" Jack
Junior Warden
